

We are looking for a Junior Communications and Campaign Officer 30 h/w based in Brussels to start as soon as possible.

Person Specification :

Successful candidate will have :

- University degree in a relevant field;
- Minimum 3 years of relevant experience in the NGO sector or EU Institutions.
- Understanding of decision-making process in the EU and of EU environmental and health policy making
- Clear, fluent and concise oral and written communication skills;
- Proofreading skills with outstanding attention to detail;
- Knowledge and/or strong interest of the EU pesticide policy;
- Fluent English, both written and spoken and preferably knowledge of Italian and/or Spanish

And experience on:

- Drafting, editing and delivering press releases and other relevant materials
- Proofreading and editing documents written by non-native speakers and improving their readability
- Updating and maintaining websites, online tools and social media
- Delivering campaign work in collaboration with member organisations and other partners
- Developing and implementing communications strategies
- Assisting with communications tasks across a range of issues

The initial contract is foreseen until December 2019, renewal depending on the available funding.

In order to apply please send you CV together with a cover letter explaining why you would like to apply for this position to seda@pan-europe.info by latest Friday, 26th April 2019.